

FREE

Fair Housing Education Workshop

Monday, February 3, 2014
4:00 p.m. – 5:30 p.m.
Hancock Resource Center
454 Highway 90, Suite B
Waveland, MS 39576

Who is eligible to attend?

- Anyone interested in learning more about fair housing and your rights under these laws

What will I learn?

- Who the Fair Housing Act protects
- What reasonable accommodations are
- What reasonable modifications are
- Ways in which discrimination occurs
- What to do if you feel you have been discriminated against
- Fair Housing Law requirements
- How to file a housing discrimination complaint
- What your rights are as a tenant or a homebuyer

For more information, call toll free at 1.866.883.4474.

Workshop materials available in alternate formats on request

Training is provided by Mississippi Fair Housing Initiatives Program, a project of the Institute for Disability Studies at The University of Southern Mississippi through funding from the Mississippi Development Authority.

Institute for Disability Studies

www.usm.edu/ids

AA/EOE/ADA